Are you from an educationally disadvantaged background (according to the federal definition below)? Yes No

Educationally Disadvantaged: An individual who comes from an environment that has hindered the individual in obtaining the knowledge, skills and abilities required to enroll in and graduate from a health professions school. The following are provided as examples of "Educationally Disadvantaged" for guidance only and are not intended to be all-inclusive.

Examples:

1. Person from high school with low average SAT scores or below the average State test results.
2. Person from a school district where 50% or less of graduates go to college.
3. Person who has a diagnosed physical or mental impairment that substantially limits participation in educational experiences.
4. Person for whom English is not their primary language and for whom language is still a barrier to their academic performance.
5. Person who is first generation to attend college and who is from a rural or urban area or receiving public assistance.

Person from a high school where at least 30% of enrolled students are eligible for free or reduced price lunches.

Are you from an economically disadvantaged background (according to the federal definition below)? Yes No

Economically Disadvantaged: An individual who comes from a family with an annual income below a level based on low-income thresholds according to family size published by the U.S. Bureau of Census, adjusted annually for changes in the Consumer Price Index, and adjusted by the Secretary for use in all health professions programs. The Secretary will annually publish these income levels in the Federal Register. The table below provides a breakdown of family income levels used to determine economic disadvantaged status. Family income is defined as the income of the trainee's parents regardless of the age of the trainee. Low-Income Levels:

Size of Family Unit <small>Includes only dependents listed on Federal income tax forms.</small>	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
Income Level <small>Adjusted gross income for calendar year</small>	$19,600	$26,400	$33,200	$40,000	$46,800	$53,600	$60,400	$67,200
