EMS Leadership Academy scheduled

HIGHLAND — Catskill Hudson Area Health Education Center will hold its sixth consecutive emergency medical service Leadership Academy on June 5.

Those attending can either come to the Highland Fire District or participate via Web cast, for which discounted group rates are available.

The workshop is geared toward emergency medical services captains, officers and others in or about to be placed in a position of leadership in their agency and is offered in collaboration with Hudson Valley Regional Emergency Medical Services Council.

For a complete program description and to enroll, visit www.chahec.org/events or call the Catskill Hudson Area Health Education Center at (845) 883-7260.

Training program focuses on zoning boards

ARKVILLE — The roles of zoning boards of appeals will be examined in the spring session of the Catskill Region Land Use Training Program, scheduled for 6:30 to 9 p.m. Thursday at the Catskill Center.

Certificates will be presented to all registrants who complete the training. The course is designed to fulfill two of the four hours required by the state for members of zoning boards of appeal, but it is also open to members of local and county planning boards.

To register, call Peter Manning at (845) 586-2611, ext. 104, or send an e-mail to pmanning@catskillcenter.org. The cost is $15 or $12.75 for Catskill Center members.

The Catskill Center for Conservation and Development is a member-supported, 501(c)(3), not-for-profit organization serving the Catskill Mountain region.
